

	Page.
On the petitioning debtor executing a deed to the trustee, and delivering all his property, &c. according to the oath before taken, the court on being certified thereof, to order that the said debtor shall be discharged from all debts contracted in his individual or co-partnership capacity, at the time of his application—1805, ch. 110, sec. 5,	532
Property afterwards acquired by gift, descent, or in his own right by bequest, devise or in course of distribution, shall be liable—1805, ch. 110, sec. 5,	532
The discharge of the petitioner not to discharge any other person, and the court to allow the petitioner to retain the necessary wearing apparel of himself and family, and direct the trustee to sell the property—1805, ch. 110, sec. 5, 6, 7,	532
The produce after satisfying all judgments, incumbrances and liens, to be divided among the creditors, and no judgment rendered after application by the petitioner to be lien—1805, ch. 110, sec. 7,	532
Nor shall any process against real or personal property have any effect, except writs of fieri facias actually and bona fide laid before this act, or the time of application—1805, ch. 110, sec. 7,	532
Trustees empowered to sue in their own names, and to prosecute suits commenced by the debtors—1805, ch. 110, sec. 8,	533
Proceedings directed, on allegation of fraud by the debtor, in disposing of his property, &c. to deceive his creditors—1805, ch. 110, sec. 8,	533
Or of his losing more than $100 by gaming at any time within three years—1807, ch. 150, sec. 2,	555
Or of his having assigned his property, with intent to give an undue preference to any creditor or security—1805, ch. 110, sec. 9,	533
On proof of such allegations, the debtor to be precluded from the benefit of the act—1805, ch. 110, sec. 9,	533
On conviction of swearing or affirming falsely, to suffer as in cases of perjury—1805, ch. 110, sec. 9,	533
The trustees may be allowed a commission, not exceeding 8 per cent. —1805, ch. 110, sec. 10,	534
On complaint by a creditor, or on his becoming insolvent, the trustee may be called before the court, the complaint inquired into, and orders made—1805, ch. 110, sec. 10,	534
He may be punished as for a contempt in case of not obeying such orders, or removed, and another appointed—1805, ch. 110, sec. 10,	534
Provision made for the discharge of the bodies of petitioners imprisoned at the time, and for payment of the fees, &c.—1805, ch. 110, sec. 11,	534
Such discharge not to operate as a discharge of the debts—1805, ch. 110, sec. 11,	534
Provided that the debtor, if required, shall give bond, with security approved by the court or judge, for his appearance to answer the allegations of his creditors, or remain in confinement—1805, ch. 110, sec. 11,	534
A time to be appointed for him to appear to answer the interrogatories by the creditors, on not less than three months notice—1805, ch. 110, sec. 11,	534